

Angela Gasque

July 13, 1968 - March 28, 2014

Angela Renee Gasque, daughter of Howard and Carolyn Gasque, was born on July 13, 1968, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this earthly life on Friday, March 28, 2014, in her home after a short illness.

“Angie”, as we all knew her, received her formal education through the Baltimore City Public School System where she graduated from Northern High School in 1987. She attended CCBC where she studied business and was employed for many years at Comcast Cable, until she became ill. She was a member of the New Psalmist Baptist Church.

Angie loved life and lived each day to the fullest. She was always willing to listen and add a word of encouragement to those in need. Wherever she was, her distinct laughter could be heard throughout. She made a lasting friend wherever she traveled. She was always willing to do anything and to help anyone with no hesitation. Even through her illness, she supported every event and function she could physically attend. Refusing to display a complaining spirit, she faced life's adversities and challenges with determination and her unbeatable smile. With a special place in her heart for children of all ages. Angie enriched the souls of many. She was a true friend and a devoted family member.

Angie was preceded in death by her brother Kevin and her nephew DaVon.

She will sorely be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Angie leaves to mourn: one son, Andrew Antwan Leak; one sister, Angeanett (David) Gasque Lopez; two brothers, Howard (Shirelle) Gasque and Alvin (Danielle) Gasque; her Auntie Mabel; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

“ To the Gasque family:

Your family is very dear to me and part of my life. Angie was my very first friend at 4 years old. I remember her beautiful smile and how excited she could be around friends—she could be so full of life. With Angie’s death part of me dies. I cannot look back to my time in Baltimore without thinking of her as I think of your respected family. I cherish her memory—she was a beautiful person. Your family is part of my Baltimore family—I grew up with you—I cherish you.

I mourn her loss—she was too young.

I send you all my love and respect.

May God Bless Angie and the rest of the Gasque family!

Respectfully,

Hal “Hally” Schelling

“ To the Gasque Family I send my most heartfelt condolences. I met Angie and her siblings when I worked in her dad's salon years ago. She was a beautiful young lady with a very loving spirit. God has welcomed this angel home again. The scriptures tell us that there is a time for everything and that includes death; it just does not come with instructions on how to channel the pain. Lean on friends and family for they are your strength, your angels without wings to help you during your time of bereavement. The Moss Family will keep you and yours in prayer.

“ Dear Gasque family and friends my condolences for your loss. I was quite grieved when I read this death announcement as Angela was only a few years older than me. In this time of tragedy please know that Jehovah the God of all comfort has your family, and Angela, in mind. His purpose for everyone to live in paradise right here on earth will soon come to fruition. Yes, that also includes those who have fallen asleep in death. “ My condolences to the family and friends.... Please know that while your loved one is not with you right now they are not forgotten by Jehovah God. May the bible bring you comfort in your time of grief. There will soon be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. (Acts 24:15) This is a promise that we all are eagerly awaiting fulfillment of as we have all lost someone to the enemy death. Soon the bible tells us that enemy will be brought to nothing. (1 Corinthians 15:26) To find more comfort from the scriptures, please visit jw.org or speak personally to one of Jehovah's Witnesses in your neighborhood.
