

Angela Jackson

February 22, 1953 - March 23, 2010

ANGELA M. JACKSON, daughter of the late Rosa C. and William H. Jackson Sr., was born February 22, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. The family moved to Newark, New Jersey and returned to Baltimore a few years later. She departed this life on March 23, 2010 after a lengthy illness. Angie, as she was known, received her education in Newark, New Jersey and Baltimore City public school systems. She was multi-talented and held various jobs throughout her life. Angie was preceded in death by one brother Edward Jackson, brother-in-law James Burrell, and long time companion Jerome Mackey. Angie made friends wherever she went. She was known for her award winning smile, and always saying, "I know I'm cute, your don't have to tell me." Angie was a true friend and devoted mother and aunt. She leaves to mourn: her son, Jermaine Jackson; daughter, Voncelle Jackson; brother, William Jackson Jr.; two sisters, Charlotte Jackson and Madgelene Burrell; daughters-in-law, Lois Jackson; six grandchildren, Shameia,, Daneia, Yvonne, Jayla, Labreia and Candyce; special nieces, Michelle, Shannell, Christ and Genesis; special nephews, William, Phillip, Keiffer and Devonte; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolence for I too know that the pain of losing someone you love can at times be overwhelming. May you find comfort as I have in knowing that all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) This wonderful promise is soon to be fulfilled, because our Heavenly Father Jehovah loves us so much!###imported-begin###Kevin Jackson###imported-end###
