“ Our love and condolences to The Loftin Family. How we treasure the goood times we had together, wherever or whenever we were together, whether at her home or ours. We saw with our own eyes her special ingredient of LOVE in her generous spirit of hospitality!

On a number of Friday evenings she and Sis. Ghee would insist that we stop by for one hour only to eat a home cooked meal and then with a beautiful smile, emphatically tell us to go back to the ministry but they would have us come back that Sunday for a gathering with the rest of our congregation. She said she wanted to do her part in supporting the pioneers, making sure we ate healthy. What a spiritual woman! Love, The Bennetts
