Celebrating the Life of Angela Helen Meredith

December 28, 1958- February 13, 2015

“ A smile for all, a heart of gold, one of the best the world could hold. Never selfish, always kind. These are the memories you left behind”

Our beloved Angela Helen Meredith, affectionately known as “Ann”, was born December 28, 1958 in Richmond, VA to her proud parents, William Meredith and the late Dorothy Lee Meredith, Jr.

At a young age, she joined Fourth Baptist Church, where she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. Always shy and preferring to remain behind the scenes, Ann lived her life with quiet humility, by the Golden Rule of loving others and a willingness to help anyone without a need for the limelight or recognition. Blessed with a big heart, she loved her family and was a very dedicated mother and grandmother "Nanny". If you asked Ann her greatest achievements in life, she would be quick to say it was not graduating with the 1977 class of Maggie Walker High School, or continuing her education at Smithdeal Massey Business College, or working for the City of Richmond for nearly 25 years. Her greatest blessings and therefore, her greatest achievements were her children, Antoine Meredith (Tara) and Vashima

Harris(Kendall Sr.);followed very closet by her six grandchildren,Alijah Lovell,Jamari Meredith,Zion Meredith,Bryce Meredith,Kendal "KJ" Harris,Jr.,and Kaden Harris.

She leaves to cherish her memory;her father,William Meredith,Jr. her brothers,Leonard Meredith and Orrin Meredith Muhammad (Lisa);her sisters,Darlene Yates and Dorothy Clayton;her devoted aunt,June Winfree;her extended family the Moore family;her devoted friends,Bertha Wyche,Trenite"Diane" Williams,Herbert Harris,and scores of relatives,friends,and anyone who was ever blessed to hear her soft voice and see her beautiful smile.

“ I am heart broken by the the loss of my dear friend. We had plans that won't come to pasts on this side, will see her on the other side. My heart aches for her children; I know they and her grand babies were her life. Loved her and going to miss her beyond measure.

“ To The Family, I am shocked and so sorry to have read the passing of Angela. I will always remember her soft spoken voice, her willingness to stop what she was doing to help and her kind gentle spirit. May God provide your needs at this sorrowful time and you are in my prayers. (former Co-worker)

“ It's saddened me to read the news of the passing of Ms. Angela. I personally had hopes of seeing her walk back into work smiling and sharing with me how she adored my strength. God has a plan in all that He does and to the family always be reminded of that. Heaven has added another angel that is right getting assigned to someone that needs a warm smile and hug. God bless you all and know that she will be missed. Praying for your comfortable at this time.
