“ Hello ! Mitchel's ! I would like to send my fellow feeling to you all in your loss. Time move onward, it has been a year since Ms. Angela circle of life was broken. One thing is for sure your heavenly father cares about how you all are fairing, 1 Peter 5:7. I know the feeling of lossing a dear mother and the hurt and pain that comes as time pass. One thing is for sure our creator is the best one to have in time of need.In the future the resurrection will be the wonderful for all that have loss dear love ones, John 5:28. The gift of memories helps on the journey of life. I hope these few thoughts will be postive and peaceful to read.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I send my warm and sincere condolences to the family of Angela. Whenever you are feeling overwhelmed by saddness, always turn to the God of all comfort who comforts us during all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. At Rev 21:4 the bible says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." One day we will no longer need nurses, doctors, medicine, or funeral parlors, because sickness and death will be no more. Rejoice in this hope, and keep trusting in Jehovah who never fails to keep his word. Isiah 55:11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I remember Angela wearng her hair in a flip and always being a lady. She had such a warm smile. There is a chance that we might see that warm smile of Angela's again. I believe what it says in the Bible at Rev 21:3,4.No more sickness and no more death. That is God's promise to us. My condolences to all of Angela's loved ones and try to find solace in God's promise of a time when we will not have these sad things happening.##imported-begin##Jannice P Lewis DHS class of 1969##imported-end##
