

Angela Harrison Thomas

April 28, 1956 - January 18, 2023

Angela Harrison Thomas, received her wings on Wednesday, January 18, 2023, at home, surrounded by her loving family.

Angela was born April 28, 1956 in Halifax, North Carolina to the late Junious Harrison and Cecelia Wilkins Harrison. She was one of six children and was educated in the Halifax County Public School System.

She professed her faith in Christ early on and continued to live a life of service to the Lord. During her time at Greater Refuge Church Ministries, she served as an usher and sang in the choir. Her faith was the foundation of her life and was unwavering. When faced with any challenge, it was her faith that sustained her. Upon relocating to Richmond, VA, she worked at Johnston Willis Hospital and Chippenham Hospital where she retired after several years of service.

Angela was a joyful person with a beautiful smile and infectious laugh. Her personality would light up any room. Her children adored her, she truly exemplified a virtuous woman.

After meeting the love of her life, she united in holy matrimony to Johnnie Thomas. This union was blessed with sixteen years.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Johnnie Thomas and her brothers, Ronnie Harrison and Chris Harrison.

Those left to cherish her wonderful memories include her children, Rodney Harrison (Denise) of Richmond, VA, Jonathan Harrison (Pam) of Greensboro, NC, Kimberly Price (Jeffrey) and Richard Lee Scott, Jr. (Jameka) both of Chester, VA; six grandchildren, Deonte Harrison, Aireale Scott, Danielle Price, Jonathan Price, Camille Scott and Corrine Scott; one great grandchild, Giannis Scott; three sisters, Verneta Harrison of Littleton, NC, Sharon Harrison (Tony) of Brooklyn, NY and Margaret Dupree (Leon) of Jamaica, NY; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relative and friends.
