August 2, 1968 - March 16, 2016

ANGELA VAUGHN, better known as Angie, 47, was born to Violet Campbell and Wilbur Sylvester Baker on August 2, 1968.

Angie attended South River High School in Maryland. She later entered the work force.

Angie enjoyed her family and friends and never gave up on living her most purpose fulfilled life. Angie enjoyed helping people and had a way of e,powering people to make them feel like they could overcome everything.

She enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her daughter, mom, brothers and nieces. She was determined to be a part of their everyday lives and bring as much love and laughter as she could.

Angie was known for sending out her daily motivational messages and if you were the recipient of one, you would notice she sent this out quite a few times lately... Joyce Myers wrote: "A strong woman knows how to keep her life in order. Even with tears in her eyes, she still manages to say "I'm Ok" with a smile." That's why God heard your prayer and said hard times are over!"
