

Angelique Johnson

April 15, 1969 - April 7, 2011

ANGELIQUE TAMALA JOHNSON, daughter of Deborah Burrell and James Johnson entered life on April 15, 1969. She left us suddenly on Thursday, April 7, 2011.

Angelique, affectionately known as “Leekie” received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She accepted Christ at an early age under the Spiritual guidance of the late Reverend David Hatchet, former Pastor of the Love, Faith and Deliverance Church of Christ. She has a sweet and happy spirit and made many friends in her lifetime. You could often find her at “Roots”, eating her chicken wings and fries. She was known for her saying: “Oh my God, Oh my God, You would want to know, you heard me?” From a young child she loved to dance and sing. She always had a real zest for life.

As her grandmother, Sireta would say: (“A heap sees, but a few know”) On Monday, Leekie said to me, “Ma, I'm alright.” Now you be alright: Take care of yourself, Malik, Britt, Jell and Juan...I'll see you when you get her, Turkey and me.”

The Bible tells us that the fruit of the Spirit is “ love, you, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness and self-control.” Our beloved Leekie possessed many of these same qualities. If given the opportunity, she would surely remind us that she is now free and forgiven because of Christ.

People will often judge us because of the choices that we make in life. But Leekie made the ultimate choice before being called to her heavenly home, for she knew Jesus as her personal LORD and SAVIOR. We will always remember her in our hearts parents, Deborah Burrell and James Johnson, children, Brittany and Jeffery; grandson, Malik; sisters, Karen, Tonya, Lisa and Latoya, brothers, Walter and Michael; uncles, Wynwood, Donald; great- aunt, Barbara, brothers-in-law; Corey and Tarrin; sister-in-law, Tawanda; a devoted friend, Michael Dix; twelve nieces, seven nephews, three great nieces, five great nephews, fifty-four cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sorrowfully submitted,
The Family

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

*To the Family of Angelique Johnson:
What words can be spoken at a time like this especially at the expense of ones grief. There is not many. It's truly a time of a loss of words, yes speechlessness, silence and shock. Why? Death is not truly apart of life's equation. Death just isn't supposed to happen. However when it does occur our only refuge at this time is in God and His written word. Those are the only words of true abundance that is uplifting and full of hope. Just know Angelique is in God's memory and soon there will come a time when those sleeping in death will awaken. Dan 12:2. Yes Jehovah God has given Jesus the authority by means of His Kingdom to bring our love ones back to life through the resurrection. John 5:28-29. Whether our loss was due to Violence; Ps 37:10, wicked will be no more, sickness Is 33:24, no will say I'm sick or due to inherited sin, Jehovah has promised death will be no more. Rev 21:4. You can trust these words because it's impossible for God to Lie. Heb 6:18. May the God of comfort be with you*

Angelique Johnson Family: I'm very sorry for your loss. Coping with the loss of a loved one is very difficult, but Almighty God is near to all those that are broken at heart (Psalm 34:18). When times become unbearable, he desires your family to throw your burdens on him (Philippians 4: 6 & 7). He promises to carry that load and burden. God's Word promises that there is a hope for our loved ones, the resurrection (Luke 7:1-16).
