

Angelique Nicol

August 30, 1969 - June 1, 2019

Angelique Nicol of Laurel, MD passed away suddenly on June 1, 2019 at the age of 49.

Angel is survived by her husband, Robert Nicol Sr., her children, Alexeus, Anastasia and Robert Jr., her parents, siblings, aunts, uncles, and cousins all from numerous areas.

Angel was born August 30, 1969 in Fairfax, VA. She was happily married to Robert Nicol for 27 years and they built their life in Laurel.

Angel had a fulfilling career operating a home daycare which she ran for 22 years. She acted as a second mother to her daycare children and loved every minute of caring for them. They were family.

Angel was the rock of her own large family. She was always giving to those she loved, there to give advice and support, and was the problem solver. She never stopped helping those in need and no obstacle was too big to stop her from being there for those she loved.

Angel also was talented and creative, making family event cakes that were better than anything you could find in a store. She saved the day many times at family events to make sure the day went perfectly, from fixing bouquets at weddings, going to dress fittings, decorating or helping plan the event. Family was cherished and was always priority. There wasn't anything she wouldn't do for someone she loved.

The family welcomes visitors join them at (church here) to say a final goodbye Friday, June 7th at 11am with a service directly to follow at noon. Flowers can be sent to (funeral home here).
