The Legacy of Angelo Cassell Cosby

His journey here on earth has ended but his new life has just begun. Our beloved Angelo Cassell Cosby, 51, departed this life on December 4, 2010. He was born March 2, 1959 in Richmond, Virginia to Rufus and Bernice Cosby.

Angelo was affectionately known as "Lo" by his family and friends. He was formerly employed at Chesterfield Auto Parts. He truly enjoyed being a fan of Nascar as well as the Washington Redskins.

Angelo was a kind, strong, caring, loving and compassionate person. He cherished every moment with his family. He had a gift of giving and was willing to help anyone. Because of the wonderful love he shared, he will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts. He will always be remembered for his generosity of love, his smile and his laughter. The love he had for his family was the backbone of his personality. We are comforted in knowing that he is in a better place and has a better life with his heavenly father.

Our beloved Angelo leaves to cherish his memories two loving daughters, Tiffany Cosby and Sequoyah Lightfoot; three grandchildren Da'Corey, Niela and Nadia; parents, Rufus and Bernice Cosby; three sisters, Sharon, Patricia and Wendy Cosby; a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy during your hour of bereavement. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the Bible hope of the resurrection. At John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs will hear my voice and come on out." Yes we have a real hope of seeing our loved ones who have died again.

“ Memory is a way of holding onto the things you love, the things you are, the things you never want to lose.

I am so blessed to have had you in my life from a child to an adult. Love and time with someone is what builds a great memory, which is something you can keep for a lifetime. The memories of you doing what you loved to do the most watch NASCAR (Dale Earnhart, Jeff Gordon and Dale Earnhart Junior), with the T.V up so loud you would think you were at the track. The love you had of always wanting to have a garden in your backyard. The relaxing feeling of goin fishing on a nice day. The loud noises you would make when watching wrestling. Always willing to give your last.....you had such a giving heart. I remember the days when you would come home and always had something for everyone.....hershey bar, reeses peanut butter cup and you always new my favorite "butter finger". On Christmas Eve when we couldn't find you in the house, we always new where you were.....out picking up some last minute things. I remember when I was about 11 years old and you chased me all the way down the street to kiss me on the cheek and tell me you loved me. I wish I could have done some things differently but nevertheless I am blessed to have had the opportunity to have you as a father figure in my life and the memories you have left me with. Love you Lo!

“ I wish that we could have spent more time together while you were here. I know sometimes we allow time to get away from us. Before you know it...days, months then years go by. The words "I love you" was not spoken often enough from either one us. As your daughter, I know you loved me because I was apart of you. As my dad, I loved you because you were apart of me. I pray that you watch over me and your grandchildren and may your soul rest in peace. God Bless! Tiffany"your oldest daughter"

“ It was 22 years ago when Angelo "Lo" came into our lives. We were five children with broken hearts from our father passing ranging in ages from 2 to 14 when Lo met our mom. I remember it like it was yesterday a woman with five children (hell raisers at times) but that didn't matter to Lo. Naturally, we resisted the presence of another man coming into our lives but as time went on healed and grew to love Lo more than you ever know. There are many fond memories from the nick name he gave our mom "Boodee", to his love of wrestling, Nascar racing, growing a garden to name a few. He showed us that it was alright for a man to express how he felt by sharing his emotions. The biggest gift that Lo gave to me and my family was his "unconditional" LOVE. The pure reflection of the God in him!

“ Gods send his Angelo to protect and cover us.....I thank God for the season you were in my life, you were heaven sent, my angel! As much as I tried to fight it as a 10 year old stubborn little girl, I loved you whole heartedly with out a doubt! Your love was sincere and genuine all the time and importantly during a difficult time for my mother ,myself and my siblings. You brought joy and laughter into our lives when we needed it the most, we will always love you for all the special moments we shared with you.

Almighty Father, eternal God, hear our prayers for Angelo whom You have called from this life to Yourself. Grant him light, happiness, and peace. Let him pass in safety through the gates of death, and live forever with all Your saints in the light You promised to Abraham and to all his descendants in faith. Guard him from all harm and on that great day of resurrection and reward raise him up with all Your saints. Pardon his sins and give him eternal life in Your kingdom. We ask this through Jesus name. Amen. Love you Lo!!!!

Be encouraged as Psalm 121:1 & 2, states:

“ How could you not know that I LOVED YOU?
For it was ALWAYS in my eyes, in every touch and in every embrace we've ever had.
It was all in the HELLO'S and GOODBYE'S we spoke. You would always tell me that you LOVE me and KISS me on my cheek and I will miss those kind words knowing that you cared. You meant so much to us all. You were special that's no lie. Not a second passes when you're on my mind but I know that you are happy now and no longer in pain.
Love You Forever and Always.?

Angelo, you had a big heart and gave me lots of memories. You helped raise me since I was 5/6 years old. I took you for granted the time God gave you to me and was too "hard headed" to see it. Believe it or not you lived a blessed 51 years on this earth and I am blessed to have had you in my life. Miss and love u.
