

Angelo Fitzgerald Jr.

December 19, 1987 - March 19, 2011

But He answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the month of God.'" Matthew 4:4

ANGELO W. FITZGERALD, JR., affectionately known as "Raisin," was born on December 19, 1987 and departed this life unexpectedly on March 19, 2011.

He attended Frederick Douglass High School. Raisin was very athletic and found time to volunteer his time helping other youth at various P.A.L. Centers around the city. You would not see Angelo without a bright smile. Fun-loving, spoiled and carefree are just a sample of his grand attributes. He loved, loved, loved, his family and spent as much time with them as possible.

He decided to dedicated his life to the Lord on November 21, 2010 at the Freedom Church and Ministries.

Angelo leaves to mourn: his mother, Dara (DeeDee) Young; his father, Angelo Fitzgerald, Sr.; three brothers, Marlo King, Honoray King and Dominic King; his grandmother, Vivian Kesler; his Pop Pop, Turner Battle; three sons, Mehki, Kyon and Ahmori; one daughter, Peyton Fitzgerald; a sister-in-law, Audrey King; a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends including a lovingly devoted friend, Nijah Neal; stepfather, Sylvester Young and stepmother, Berry Wilson. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, William and Rudy Fitzgerald.

“ As hard as it is for me to go on, without you....I still have a smile. From the very day I met you...you touched my life in such a special way. You was my BESTFRIEND til the end. That was our promise. We shared so many memories...from joking, laughing, dancing against each other you knew how to put & keep a smile on my face. Its a sad sad day. But you left me such a beautiful baby boy and i promise hes gonna live his father legacy. All the worries are over now. i love you Razor.

“ Hey Lil Cuz...God have you right now, so I am at peace. However, I miss you dearly and wish that you were here in the flesh with us. I remember when we all drove down VA with you. Man those were good times. Now you are with our grandfather William Jr and Granny Ruby. I know you are getting all of the hugs and kisses from them => You and Shema left us at a young age and that's a hard pill to swallow, but I know God knows best, so I'm going to leave it at that. You left some beautiful children behind and I know you will live through them. I love you Cuz.

“ We met in 2004 in high school & instantly clicked tight , you introduced me to wayne and from there we had formed a bond .there was not a basketball/Football game, Party or Club scene that we didnt show up too feeling like "Ace,Rico & Mitch".lol ...after high school we parted ways due to us doing our own things in life ,be never really lost touch . i would ride thru your way and ask around for you & whenever you was around my way ,you did the same. we finally met up and we started reminisce on high school days . i told u if you ever needed me to holla at me .u got in a jam ,& you got someone to call me ...needless to say " im a man of my word" !!! man, just writing this right now its hard !!!! Angelo Fitzgerald was one of the Real ones Thru it all he still smiled and stay in good spirits, thats what i admired about himyour legacy will live on through your friends and family .we will celebrate your life rather than your passing. I Love You Fam

Tavon I was the family member that greeted you at the door when you came by to offer your condolences. I felt that there was something special about how you presented yourself and now I know you was a positive element. Thank you for representing and sharing your kind words during our time of mourning. Let all of us celebrate the time we spent with Angelo. I loved him dearly

“ The first day I saw you I was like he's so cute like a girl lol and from day one we clicked. You always kept a smile on your face and never wanted to fuss. The day Mekhi was born into this world I knew we had a established a bond that wouldn't never brake even if we both went and explored new people I knew that we both had that. Everyday I look at khi I see you from him being silly and having all the young ladies lol just like you. You was more then a father,son,brother,uncle,best friend you was just a REAL MAN and thats hard to come about in this world. I would never questioned god for calling you home just a little confused and hurt WHY so soon? I promise that your son will carry your name on with pride and will be better now that he has his father as his angle R.I.P Razor forever my friend <3 <3 <3

“ For my family; words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel, but I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. Peace TJ

“ I'am deeply sadden by the lost of my nephew, Angelo (Rasin) Fitzgerald. I can remember his visits to my home and now I want have those visits anymore. I will miss from seeing Rasin when I visit the rest of the family in Baltimore. If I visited and didn't see Rasin, I would always ask his father (my brother) how was Rasin was doing. When I would see Rasin's brother, it was like seeing him. My nephew was better known to me as Rasin. We will certainly miss Rasin, his memories will forever live in our hearts. To my brother, Angelo Sr. I say to you in the lost of your son and to the rest of the family be encouraged and know that God is in control and he will take care of you. Know that earth has no sorrow that heaven can't heal. To my nephew I say; Sleep on dear Nephew, take your rest, we all loved you, but God loved you best.

Sorrowfully,
Your Aunt Temple & Family
