

Angelo Johnson

September 15, 1955 - December 12, 2018

Angelo Johnson, son of the late Ruth Johnson and Lloyd Johnson Sr was born on September 15, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and worked as a barber at numerous barber shops. Angelo also served one year of military duty for the United States Army. Angelo had a hard life which he turned around for the better and joined First Church of our Lord Jesus Christ, where he was a faithful and active member. Angelo made many friends in his travel. He was like the main character in the show "Cheers" where everybody knew his name and was always glad to see. Many knew him as "World" the very funny guy and a comedian for sure. He could crack a joke and have you in tears. He loved his family, football and being with his sons Angelo, Dion, and Tyrik.

On December 12, 2018 Angelo departed this earth to enter into eternal life with God. Angelo was preceded in death by his mother Ruth Johnson, two sisters, Linda Marshall and Charlene Williams, and one brother Lloyd Johnson, Jr.

Angelo is survived by his father Lloyd Johnson, Sr.; three sons, Angelo Johnson, Jr, Dion Atkins, and Tyrik Atkins; four sisters, Sylvia Conner, Darlene Johnson, Debra Johnson and Yvette Johnson; and one brother, Cedric Johnson. Angelo also left to cherish a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, grandchildren and many devoted friends.
