“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family. Losing a loved one in death, especially one in the prime of life as your Angelo was is very hard to come to terms with, I wish you all much sympathy and comfort. When these things happen many times we ask why? Why did this have to happen to my family? Then we conclude that it was God's will. Did you know that things happen to people for many reasons? Sometimes it's due to illness, sometimes it's merely being in the wrong place at the wrong time, it's as the bible says at Ecc:9:11, "I returned to see under the sun that the swift donot have the race, nor the mighty ones the battle, nor do the wise also have the food, nor do the understanding ones also have the riches, nor do even those having knoledge have the favor; because time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all." Sadly, many times unforeseen occurrences take our loved ones away from us suddenly. This is not God's will though, because the bible says at 1st John 4,8 that "God is love". He does not want any family to suffer the pain of losing a loved one, nor does he desire anyone to die. Simply put we die, because of the first man Adam. That is why Romans 5:12 says, That is why just as through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because they had all sinned. As the bible says sin is the cause of death. Yet God didnt leave us in this state. Jehovah had to send his precious son Jesus to undo the hurt Adam brought upon us. 1st Cor 15:22 says this: "In Adam all are dying, but in the Christ all will be made alive." Most of us woundn't want to die for someone else, but notice what the scripture says about the love that Jehovah and his Christ has for us. Romans 5:7,8 says: "For hardly will anyone die for a righteous man, indeed for the good man, perhaps, someone even dares to die. 'But God recommends his own love to us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. If they love us that much then we can be sure that one day our loved ones will rise up out of the grave. The prophet Daniel believed this, because he wrote at Daniel 12,2: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Acts 24:15 also says that there will be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. May it comfot you to know that even though Angelo died at a very young age, he will open his eyes again to live out his full potential, because Jehovah promises everlasting life to all who love him. He tells us we can reach out and take life"s waters free. Rev 22:17###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end## “ To the family, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
