“ Please accept my deepest condolences during this difficult period. It is unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of those we love. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from the "...God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Daniel 12:2 offers a comforting prospect for the dead- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May this divinely inspired promise give you much comfort and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Dandridge, I would like to offer my deepest sympathy for your great loss. During this most difficult time, please know that Almighty God knows what you are going through and promises to do something about it. His word, the Bible is full of comforting verses that promises us that we will be reunited with our loved ones again. At John 5:28.29, Jesus says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out..." Also, at Isaiah 26:19 Jehovah God promises, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine- they will rise up. Awake, and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." How wonderful to know that our void will be filled when we get to see again those death has taken from us. Our pain will be replaced with excitement, happiness and tears of joy from such an occasion. To see, touch, smell and enjoy the company of our loved ones again seems impossible doesn't it. Well, this promise will soon be a reality according to Almighty God, Jehovah. Afterwards, He promises to, "Actually swallow up death forever..." (Isaiah 25:8) No more will be mourn, cry out in pain, or be stricken with grief from losing our loved ones. I hope you have found some comfort in these words. Please compare these scriptures with your copy of the bible and see these truths firsthand.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ The lost of a dear loved one is always hard to bear however in knowing God’s purpose concerning death truly brings a healing comfort. Knowing in our near future God said we would no longer have to be troubled over death neither threaten by death. Why because Is 25:8-9 said Jehovah will swallow up death. Rev 21:4-5 said death will be no more. Jehovah has promised by means of Jesus that our loved ones will be redeemed from death according to Hoesa13: 14. Yes how wonderful when soon under Gods new arrangement the dead will live again stated at Is. 26:19. Jehovah is such a loving God who cares so much about us and what happens to us according to 1Peter 5:7 that he makes it clear according to his written word what he plans to do in our behalf. I’m sending my condolences and prayers in that you may draw comfort and peace in knowing that your love ones lost to death is a temporary state and that death was never a part of God’s plan for mankind. Soon Jehovah and Jesus are going to undo all the damage Satan has done causing much burdens and inflicting all the things that cause much pain suffering and grief##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
