

Anita Frazier

February 18, 1963 - September 21, 2024

Anita Frazier, affectionately known as "Nita" or "Aunt Nita," was the daughter of Johnnie Mae Revell and Lenard C. Revell, and birth mother, Vivian Latham. Nita was born on February 18, 1963, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life, entering into eternal rest, on September 21, 2024, after fighting a lengthy battle. She was, will forever be, our SHEro.

Nita received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she obtained high school diploma at Southwestern High School. She later attended Baltimore Community College and earned her degree in nursing.

Anita loved, loved loved her family, friends and the Baltimore Ravens. Whenever Aunt Nita, showed up, you knew the party was going to be lit! She was also a part of Dream Nation Marching Unit, and you could catch her strutting through the streets of Baltimore, proudly carrying the banner in her unit's colors.

She was preceded in death by both mothers and her father. Anita leaves to cherish her memory: Her one and only "big daughter," Shanita Roger-Ushry; Son-in-law: Erik Ushry Sr.; One granddaughter: her "Nook," Ty'Shay McNeal; Two grandson: her Moody," Erik Ushry Jr., and her "Nan-Nan's baby" Kire' Ushry; One goddaughter: Laneisha Shaw "Neisha"; One godson: Jamal Harper, both of whom she loved as if they were her own; Five sisters:

Christine Eldridge, Veronica Randall-Edward, Tonya Miles (deceased), Geraldine Greene, and Bernadette Gibbs-Brockenbrough; Two brothers: Howard Merritt (deceased) and Raymond Whiting (deceased); One uncle: Bernard Armwood; One aunt: Deborah Frazier "Debbie" (deceased).

Nita had a few "road dawgs," and when you saw one, you saw the other: Shauna Morgan, Karen Trusty, Valarie Bookman (deceased), Phyllis Prettyman "Angel," Bonita Ellis, Deborah Cooper, and Clara Johnson "Boodie." She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who she loved dearly.

A few days before Nita left this earth, she told her close friend, "I'm going to a party, and there's only one invite." The friend asked, "Well, who are you going with?" Nita replied, "Cherie is coming to get me."
