

Aniya Maisha Murdock

January 20, 1977 - March 22, 2007

Aniya Maisha Murdock, daughter of Mildred Jean Murdock and the late Andrew W. Murdock Jr., was born on January 20, 1977 in Baltimore, Md.. She was the first daughter and 3rd child of six born from this union. Aniya departed this life on March 22, 2007 after a lengthy illness. Aniya received her education in the Baltimore City School Systems. She attended Commodore John Rodgers Elementary, Canton Middle and Patterson High School. She was employed with Deaton Specialty Rehabilitation Center until her illness in 1997. Aniya was the loving mother of three children: Antonio, Ania, and Ania Perry (with whom she had custody of). Aniya took parenting seriously and was a beautiful mother with a very big heart for children. She always had aspirations to open her very own daycare facility. Aniya was affectionately called, "Pooh" by her family and friends. In addition she had several other pet names; Annie Gunt (given to her by her brother), Missa Nelson (given to her by her neighbor's children), Ant (given to her by Aunt Estelle) and Martha (given to her by the next door neighbor). Pooh loved to shop at Wal-Mart and Target stocking her house with various household products. Martha loved to laugh a lot and cook. You could always count on a good meal. All the children wanted to go to Aunt Pooh's house. She always took the time to baby sit all of her nieces and nephews; they never wanted to go home because she was so good to them. Aniya attended Refuge Way of the Cross Church under the guidance of Bishop Leroy Cannady Sr. from birth until 1986. After visiting for several years, Aniya, along with her mother and siblings began to fellowship at First Apostolic Faith Church under the leadership of Bishop F. C. Showell. She was later baptized in Jesus' Name at the Church of the Redeemed of the Lord under the leadership of Bishop Jerome Stokes and Lady Marsha Stokes. Pooh was a faithful member of the 8:00 a.m. service until her health prevented her from attending. Aniya was very close to her mother and siblings. She will be greatly missed by all and forever in our hearts. She leaves to mourn: her three children, Antonio, Ania and Ania Perry; her mother, Mildred Jean Murdock; four brothers, Andrew, Darian, Allen and Colin; two sisters, Lauren and Sha'Kearah; grandmother, Rachel Murdock; brother-in-law, Benjamin; three sisters-in-law, Katina, Nicole and Chauntay; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Also a very special aunt, Estelle Perry.

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Aniya. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But not so before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I am sincerely sorry that you lost your precious loved one in death. Sadly, sickness and death continues to stalk mankind, and we all long for an end to this sorrow. One day soon, Jehovah God and his son, Jesus, together will bring an end to death forever, and as for the dead they will experience the glorious resurrection spoken of at Acts 24:15. Jesus raised many back to life while he was here on earth, including a 12-year old girl. Imagine the joy her parents had when their little girl opened her eyes. Please read this at Mark chapter 5. One day soon Jesus will raise millions back to life in paradise conditions. He himself said at John 10,10, \\\"I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance.\\\" Please, dear family, let the bible comfort you at this time, and may your precious memories which death cannot erase bring joy to your hearts.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We never get used to death because it really is our enemy.(First Corinthians 15:26) Almighty God promises to destroy enemy death and restore to life many from the graves to a paradise earth. (Acts 24:15, Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises of Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Aniya, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
