

Ann Marie Carlton

March 27, 1939 - June 25, 2011

ANN MARIE CARLTON, daughter of the late Samuel L. Lunsford and the late Martha A. Lunsford, was born on March 27, 1939 in Beacon, New York. Ann was the wife of the late James Carlton who preceded her in death. A son, Darrow Keith Coady, also preceded her in death: one sister, Martha Jean Vereen, three brothers, Berkley Leonard Lunsford, Richard Allen Lunsford and James Lunsford, and a one grandson, Davon Terrell Butler, all preceded her in death.

Ann (known as Annie by all her sisters and brothers) attended school in Beacon, New York. Annie met the love of her life in 1957 and they were united in marriage. Out of this union two children were born, Stewart Carlton and Rose M. Carlton.

Ann really loved the Lord, and her faith sustained during her illness. She was a member of New Second Missionary Baptist Church for many years, and was a faithful member until her illness prevented her from attending regularly. She was a very loveable and kind person. She adored and loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren who affectionately called her "Grannie Annie." She would give you her heart. Annie was known as "sexy ida" by her devoted daughter that she called Missy. There is nothing that Missy would not do for her mother.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Stewart A. Carlton, Rose M. Carlton and Yolanda Carlton (daughter-in-law); three sisters, Mary O. McNair, Delores Swain and Marvin L. Lunsford; two brothers, Samuel L. Lunsford II and Marvin L. Lunsford; twelve grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and devoted friends. Two special devoted friends, Royster Davis and Jeanette Thomas; two adopted children, Thomas Brooks and Cynthia Eley

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May the God of Peace, Jehovah, help to ease your grief and always be beside you as you continue on through life.

Hoping it helps to know that others care and share your loss.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

With Deepest Sympathy

The Carlton Family

*Memory can tell us only what we were,
In company with those we loved;
It cannot help us find out what each of us,
Alone, must now become.*

Remember? Always. Love? Eternally. Forget? Never.
