

Ann Elizabeth Bradby

July 12, 1932 - July 12, 2008

The Obituary "As a particle of sand in an hour glass slowly falls through the passage way, indicating the passages that is the link between mortal life and life everlasting." Ann Elizabeth Bradby, daughter of the late Edna Charity and widow of Argine Bradby, Sr., departed this life on July 12, 2008 at the Medical College of Virginia. Ann was born July 12, 1932 in Charles City, VA, where she attended Charles City County Public Schools. Ann worked for Charles City Co. Public Schools at Barnetts Elementary and also for Medical College of Va. for many years. She also loved helping take care of families in Charles City Co. and Richmond, Virginia. Ann loved the Lord and she accepted Christ at an early age and joined Gilfield Baptist Church. She attended church services on a regular basis. She shared God's love by singing in the senior choir for many years until she became ill. Ann and Argine were married May 10, 1953 and to that union thirteen children were born. Ann's husband (Argine Bradby Sr.), two sons (Irving and Kevin Bradby) preceded her in death. Ann leaves to cherish her sweet memories her devoted children, five sons, Russell Charity (Regina), Garry Bradby, Argine Bradby Jr. (Darlene), Aubrey and Terry Bradby; six daughters, Eleanor Washington (Royal), Hope Crawley (David), Darlene Bradby, Theresa Carson (Harold), Charlotte Johnson (Isaiah) and Wanda Ford (Leander); 31 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren; 1 sister-in-law, Margaret Vessel; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends among them devoted, Kenneth Sweeney, Randy and Rod Miles, Etta Jones and Edith Carter. God saw the road was rough and the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed her loving eyes and whispered "Peace Be Thine". Her weary hours days of pain and troubled nights have passed, and in our hearts we truly know, she has found peace at last. She closed her eyes and slipped away, but she did not go alone, for a part of us went with her, the day God called her home. The Family

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of your precious Ann. One day death will no longer be hanging over our heads like a dark cloud, because Jehovah God has made provisions to end all sickness, tragedy, and death in the very near future. Scientists and doctors work so hard to find out why people die, but they really don't know the answers. Yet they do everything they can to help us. Only God knows the answers and the cure for death, and with his great power and love he will put an end to this enemy that causes us so much grief. 1st Cor 15:26. In the bible at Psalm 68:20 it tells us what Jehovah is capable of doing. It says, "The true God is for us a God of saving acts; and to Jehovah, the Sovereign Lord belong the ways out from death." So Jehovah knows how to release our loved ones from the prison of death. Daniel 12,2 lets us know how the dead will live again. It says: "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May you be comforted by the wonderful promise of the resurrection.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort Jehovah God gives at John 5:28,29 where we are promised that those who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of receiving a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##
