

Ann Delores Ford

September 18, 1936 - October 17, 2019

Ann Ford entered into eternal rest on Thursday, October 17, 2019. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mckinley and Irleen Elizabeth Davis and a brother James McKinley Davis. She was born September 18, 1936 in Camden, New Jersey.

She attended elementary school in Henderson, N.C. before moving to Richmond, Virginia, where she resided with her parents and sibling in the Providence Park Community. She was educated in the Richmond Public Schools System and was an honor student at Armstrong High School in the graduating class of 1953. Ann attended Virginia State University where she earned a Bachelor and a Master of Science Degree in Education. She worked for the Department of Parks and Recreation before joining Richmond Public Schools as an Exceptional Education Teacher in 1965. She touched the lives of many children for 33 years.

Ann was a baptized believer and served God faithfully through her gifts, talents and service at Providence Park Baptist Church. She had a kind and loving spirit, was an advocate for children and would lend a helping hand to anyone. She was a dedicated member of the Inspirations, Women's and Hatcher Memorial Hand Bell Choirs, participated in Bible Study Class and was a Sunday School Teacher. Ann was a lifelong member of Providence Park Baptist Church and touched many members and organizations in the church.

Ann traveled domestically and internationally in her leisure time. She was a member of several professional and social groups. Some of her favorites were the Order of Eastern Star Nannie Jones Perkins Chapter #161 OES P.H.A., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, Triangle Social Club and The Tuesday Pinochle Pals.

Ann leaves to cherish her loving memory; niece, Brittany Davis; nephew, Christopher Davis; three cousins, Patricia Ames (Preston), Willie Mae Hinnant (James) and Florence Morris; devoted friend, Barbara Caul; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ Mrs. Ford was caring, compassionate, and loved the children at Amelia Street School. She treated the staff with understanding, kinship, respect, and acknowledged differences. She advocated for all and worked to create an environment that surpassed what some may call minimal or average. She was a warrior, healer, and builder of and for children and other educators. God is smiling as the angels rejoice as one of their own returns home. She loved her brother and Chris. She was such a sweet spirit. I will miss her.

I was so sorry to learn about Mrs. Ford 's passing. She was patient and caring, kind words, and sharing. I want to say "Thank you " for your support and services to Richmond City Public and staff at Amelia Street School.

So dear family rejoice, Ms. Ford had finished her race successfully and is with the One who holds the key of everlasting life,-"Absent from the body , present with the Lord ."

May His blessings be with the family for His promise is that He will never leave you or forsake you.
