

Ann Rita Elizabeth Lee

March 22, 1935 - March 29, 2018

ANN RITA ELIZABETH LEE, daughter of the late James L. and Cecilia R. Griffin, was born on March 22, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on March 29, 2018 after a brief illness.

She received her education at St. Peter Claver Catholic School and Douglass High School. Upon completion of her education, she married the late Lawrence Harrison Lee and out of this union eight children were born. During her early years, she was a substitute teacher at St. Pius Catholic School for a brief time. She then devoted her time to raising her children. In 1986, at the age of 51, she attended Maryland Training Center where she received certification for Geriatric Nursing. Afterwards, she went to work for Milford Mill Manor Nursing Facility until she retired.

After retirement, Ann lived a quiet life always surrounded by her children, attending family outings and functions, which was often. We really utilized her basement and backyard, celebrating birthdays, marriages, baby showers, holiday functions, and get togethers to celebrate life and family.

Ann was a sweet and caring woman who was loved tremendously by friends and family alike. She enjoyed her bible study, crossword puzzles and eating good food. She also enjoyed spending time and traveling with her siblings. She shared a special bond with one sibling in particular, Florence Lee; they did everything together, eventually marrying brothers.

She was preceded in death by three children, Rita Ann Ckyyou, Stephen Gerald Lee, Bridget MaDonna Lee, Gregory Eric Lee and Delores Lee Jenkins; two sons-in-law, Michael Merritt and Walter Jenkins; six sister, Cecilia Williams, Florence Lee, Carolyn Griffin, Theresa Booker, Patricia Miller and Angela Burris; four brothers, Charles Griffin, Phillip Griffin, Joseph Griffin and Michael Griffin; two brothers-in-law, John Lee and Eric Burris; two sisters-in-law, Yvonne Griffin and Janie Griffin; twelve grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

To all of Ann's family,

You have my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy.

What I've always noticed about Ann was her gentle, kind and quiet spirit, which let me know that she was truly a remarkable and beloved woman of God.

And I believe that it is her kind and gentle spirit, amongst all of her other virtues, that she will be remembered for.

God has promised us eternal life, which means that her spirit will always be alive; especially within your minds and your hearts.

I pray that God will bless all of you with his love and his strength during this sad time in your lives.

With Much Love,

Ann J. Cotten
