

Ann S. Madden

February 21, 1942 - July 18, 2021

On Sunday morning, July 18, 2021 in the stillness of her room at Saint Elizabeth Rehabilitation and Nursing facility, ANN S. MADDEN, a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and the daughter of Helen S. Kent and James E. Kent Sr., went home to be with the Lord.

Ann was educated in the Baltimore County Public School System and at St. Frances High School in Baltimore City. Ann worked 20 years as a General Service Supervisor for the Mayor of Baltimore City.

Ann's passion was for her family, and she held a special place in her heart for Trina, her loving and devoted daughter. They shared a special bond. It's nothing that they would not do for one another. Her favorite foods were crab cakes and a coke with fries. She enjoyed playing Bingo and watching the birds.

Ann received salvation at an early age and was a devoted member of Saint Paul Institutional Baptist Church where she served as an Usher.

She was preceded in death by her parents Helen and James Kent Sr., her brother James Kent Jr., her sister Dora Ebb, her husband David Hilton Madden, her firstborn son David Hilton Madden Jr., her aunt Julia Newman, and her great-grandson David Hilton Madden IV.

She leaves to mourn her passing: her brother, Michael Smith; her sons, Kevin and Derrick Madden; her daughter, Trina Madden-Guy; her grandchildren, Tevin Guy, Tiarra Guy, Dominic (Charteque) Madden, David (Beverly) Madden, Tanisha Madden, Clint Madden, Derrick Madden Jr., Simone Madden, Dakia Madden, DaJuan Madden, Tiaire'a Madden (Damion) Mims, Kevin Madden Jr., Keon Madden, Lamar Madden; her great-grandchildren, True, Tevyn, Zayn, Wynter, Shyairra, Makiya, Jamyia, Alexis, Trinity, Zori, Savannah, Jaylen, Demi; and a host of other great-grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends that will miss her dearly.
