

Ann R. Wilkerson

April 9, 1921 - January 4, 2014

ANN REBECCA TOWNES WILKERSON, daughter of Mary Lizzie and Ross Townes, was born April 9, 1921 in Halifax County, VA. She departed this life on Saturday, January 4, 2014. She accepted Christ at an early age and had a personal relationship with God throughout her life.

Ann was educated in the Virginia school system. She started working at an early age until she retired at the age of seventy-six.

Ann enjoyed reading, watching baseball (her favorite team the Orioles), and collecting teddy bears.

She met and married the late Leo Wilkerson in 1945. From this union she had six children, Mary, Barbara, Rosie, Lina, Diane, and Kevin.

Ann was not only a role model to her children, she was admired and was also an inspiration to her family, friends and neighbors. She will truly be missed by all.

She leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters and one son; two sons-in-law, Ted Nearing and Michael Sutton; daughter-in-law, Maurelle Wilkerson; and close family friend, Clarence Freeman; also her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Ned and Velma Wilkerson; (her brother George Townes and sister Alice Townes preceded her in death); fourteen grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. She also leaves to cherish her memory: care providers, Anna Burt, Vivian Smith, Nicki Hill, Renee Ross; and close friends, Betty Jenkins and Essie Cornwell.
