

Anna A. Chalk

March 2, 1916 - March 3, 2003

Anna Augusta Chalk (nee Wilmer) was born on March 2, 1916 in Wye Mills, Maryland to the late James Albert and Annie Wilmer. Anna, known as "Gussie" to friends and family departed this life on March 3, 2003 at Genesis Homewood Nursing Home. Anna received her education in the public schools of Matthewstown, Maryland. During her career she worked at McGrath's packinghouse and later, she became a day care teacher at the Little Red Hen Daycare Center. Gussie loved children and worked with them until she retired approximately twenty-five years ago. Anna was united in holy matrimony to the late George W. Clark. This union lasted fifty-three years until his death in December 2000. Together they reared her nephew, Mr. James B. Wilmer. Anna was a long-time member of the Christ United Methodist Church under the current leadership of Rev. Clarence Davis. She was a faithful member until failing health prevented her from attending. Anna leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Evangelist Mary R. Purnell; one nephew, Mr. James B. Wilmer; one niece, Candice Campbell; one niece-in-law, Evelyn S. Wilmer; two great nephews, Mr. James B. Wilmer and Mr. Derek Campbell; three great nieces, Sharron Smith, Jodie and Candice McCrea; one great-great niece, Bria Robinson; two great-great nephews, John B. Robinson and Noel Carter.

Tribute Wall

“ Anna A. Chalk

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Anna A. Chalk

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Calvin and I would like to extend our heartfelt sympathy to your family.##imported-begin##Catherine B. Thompson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family - May love surround you May faith sustain you May hope encourage you Day by Day Peace - God Bless.##imported-begin##Grace Y. Jones##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM