

Anna Bristow

September 9, 1944 - December 1, 2025

ANN VIRGINIA BRISTOW was born on September 9, 1944, and on Monday, December 1, 2025, at Johns Hopkins Hospital, she went home to be with her Lord and Savior. Anna was the sixth child of the late Melinda Roddy Wardle and William Wardle. All of her siblings preceded her in death.

Anna grew up in Douglas Projects. She received her education through the Baltimore City School System. Anna was a strong, courageous, and independent woman. She loved spending time with her family and special niece, Elsie Louise McMillan (aka) Sally, who preceded her in death on August 5, 2021.

Anna was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital in housekeeping until she retired. She was a faithful employee and loved her profession. After 35 years of dedicated service, Anna retired at age 62 with honor and deep appreciation. Anna was a socialite and loved her coworkers and friends, on and off the job. She continued to bless and serve others through love, mentorship and generosity.

She was a giver, remembering their birthdays, and Christmas through sending gifts and cards. They were more than friends; they were family to her. She loved dolls and purchased dolls through catalogs, giving many away as gifts.

Anna lived a full life. She enjoyed traveling on bus trips and playing games at the casino. She visited Las Vegas, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, and many other places. Anna talked about and cherished all of her friends whom she loved who were very close to her at her residence and in the community.

Anna's husband, Roosevelt Bristow preceded her in death. She leaves behind cherished family and friends who will deeply miss her.
