

Anna B. Clark

December 31, 1949 - April 13, 2018

Anna Bell Kingwood Clark was born, December 31, 1949 in Sumter, South Carolina to the late Waddell Kingwood Sr. and Pearlie Mae Anthony-Kingwood.

After a very brief illness, on Friday, April 13, 2018 our heavenly father sent his angels to the Seasons Mt Pleasant Hospice at Sinai Hospital of Baltimore, Maryland, took hold of Anna's hand and escorted her through the Golden Gate of Heaven. Anna transitioned peacefully to her heavenly home with family and many love ones by her side with her sister Jennetta holding her hand.

Our guardian angel "Lump" accepted her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age in life and was a faithful member of the Cornerstone Church of Christ, until her death.

Anna fondly known as Ann to some and known by many family and friends as Lump started her Pre K education in Sumter, South Carolina at the Goodwill Presbyterian Elementary School. When Mr. and Mrs. Kingwood migrated from Sumter, SC to Baltimore, MD, Lump continued to receive her education in the Baltimore City Public School system, and completed her education at Carver Vocational Technical Senior High School in June of 1969 with a diploma in cosmetology. Lump loved perfecting her craft as a beautician. She became very close to the people she came in contact with and did everyone's hair in the family.

Her goal was to own her own hair salon, but due to some critical health issues prevented her from fulfilling this wonderful opportunity. Lump held a part time position with the City of Baltimore Public School System Work Study Program at the Crownsville Hospital where she learned not only to be a better beautician/ hair stylist but became a compassionate individual.

She did what she loved best; that was, making people look and feel good. Her profession was more like a calling instead of a skill.

Anna Kingwood met Joseph Clark and was united in holy matrimony in March of 1971. From this union two sons was born, Joseph Timothy Clark Jr. and Ronald Dante Clark Sr.

Her passion for making people happy stayed with her for eternity. She had a way of making a simple occasion with good food and a good conversation turn into a family celebration. She was not satisfied with just a little bit of this and a little bit of that, she had to make sure there was enough for everyone. It did not matter if you were a biological kin-folk or not, her magnitude of giving was so gigantic that it did not matter to her - She showed everyone LOVE.

She never forgot an important event for friends and loved ones and attended each and every one of them to show her support. Lump sent cards to everyone for their birthday, Christmas or any special occasion up until her final days.

Lump loved to shop, cook and entertain. The passionate LOVE for her family was undeniable. She had a unique personal relationship with her sons, her siblings, her nieces and nephews, and many many others. But we all knew that most of all her prized love was for her grandchildren who were her pride and joy.

Ann held many positions as a Certified Nursing Assistant until her unexpected illness took place.

Caring for her clients was just another way she showed her love for helping those who were less fortunate in helping themselves. Ann's last place of employment was with the State of Maryland Vital Sign Nursing under the directive of the Mabel's House Assisted Living Center.

Lump we want you to know you will live in the hearts of all who LOVED you, and will be extraordinary missed by all. But most of all it soothes our hearts knowing you are now in your element, because you are with your Dante, who is probably saying to you, Come On MaMa take my hand, as I welcome you into your heavenly home.

Preceding Anna in death is her father Waddell Kingwood Sr., mother Pearlle Kingwood, grandson Ronald Dante Clark Jr., nephew Oliver L. McCaffity Jr., brother Waddell Kingwood Jr. and two sisters Ada McCaffity and Karen Kingwood.

CHERISHING ANNA'S MEMORY are her two sons, Joseph T. Clark Jr. (Kimberly) and Ronald D. Clark Sr., Granddaughter, Temia-Clark Parker (Jamal) , Grandson, Quantrell Curreton (Joy Conway), two Great Grandsons, Tristan and Trenton Parker, two Great Granddaughters, Janiyah Parker and Jalayah Curreton, one and only Sister Ethel J. Kingwood, (Joseph "Chop" Floyd), Uncle and Aunt John and Gloria Anthony of North Carolina, and a Special Friend Alfred "Bugs" Fraction. Also cherishing our love one's memory is a host of magnificent nieces, nephews and cousins, other relatives, and very close friends who are like family to her.
