

Anna E. Cooper

May 9, 1925 - May 14, 2003

On Wednesday, May 14, 2003, God called Anna to be with Him as one of His angels. Anna E. Cooper, daughter of the late James and Nanny Brogden, was born on May 9, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. Anna received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Anna was married to Robert Cooper, from this union there were three children, Barbara, Robert Jr. and Ralph. (Robert and Ralph Jr. preceded her in death). Anna was a very loving and caring person to all who came to her door. She was well known and loved throughout the neighborhood by everyone. During her greeting and conversation, you would always hear her favorite Phrase, "Well Jesus!" Anna had a big heart. She was a great inspiration to her family and all that knew her. Anna was well known for her strength, hard work and ability to achieve whatever she set out to do. Anna will be well missed by all that knew and loved her. We all thank God for letting her pass through our lives. Anna is survived by one daughter, Barbara Cooper one sister, Doris Shanks; one brother, Kenneth Brogden; one sister-in-law, Christine Brogden; four grandchildren Gary, Annette, Steven and Robert; fifteen great-grandchildren three great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. They all truly loved her. Anna, I don't know if you even realize it, but you were the kind of person who made others feel warm and happy. Just by being around you. You had a very special gift that you gave. It's called caring, and you weren't afraid to share it. You were down to earth and honest, you never pretended to be anything but yourself, and I'm glad because yourself was one of my favorite people. Let me say to you once again. I thank God for picking such a great and loving person to be my grandmother and a wonderful friend. I love you, and I will always miss you. Annie
