

Anna Elizabeth Gorham

June 12, 1938 - February 22, 2010

ANNA ELIZABETH GORHAM, the daughter of late Jasper L. Sr. and Eva Williams was born June 12, 1938 in Smithfield, North Carolina. She departed this life on Monday, February 22, 2010 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City School System, graduating from Dunbar High School and furthering her education at the Community College of Baltimore where she received her Associates of Art Degree in Early Childhood Education. Anna worked in the Baltimore City Public School System as a long time substitute teacher before pursuing a job at Woodstock Job Corp. In Woodstock, Maryland as a Guidance Counselor for over fifteen years before her retirement. Anna loved working with children. Her goal was to work with growing children on an emotional and educational level; promoting positive assurance to youth, encouraging them to work at obtaining their achievable goals. On September 20, 1958 Anna married James I. Gorham Sr.; blessed by this union was the birth of one child, James L. Gorham Jr. Anna was an active member at the Wayland Baptist Church for numerous years. Anna was a unique person, having a love for traveling, cooking and sewing. She had exquisite tastes for fashion always displaying a diva appearance. Her love and devotion to her family and friends was unselfish; always willing to extend a helping hand whenever needed. She will sorely be missed. Anna leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband of more than fifty years, James L. Gorham Sr.; her son, James Gorham Jr.; daughter-in-law, Shantres Gorham; six grandchildren, Antwion, LaShawnda, Elijah, Shannon, Day'Jay and Donta;

two great-grandchildren, Ariree and Jalen; brother, Jasper L. Williams Jr.; two aunts; five brothers-in-law, eleven sisters-in-law and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Anna Elizabeth Gorham. Losing loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ The pain of losing someone you love can at times seem unbearable. I too know that pain. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) That day will be the real celebration of life!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##
