

Anna "Moody" Flowers

November 5, 1936 - August 29, 2018

ANNA ROSE MOODY FLOWERS was born to Helen May (Tote) Lewis and John Lewis on November 5, 1936 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Wednesday, August 29, 2018 after a brief illness.

Anna and her brother Wayne were raised in a loving and nurturing home where education was listed as high standard.

Anna attended Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Douglass High School and then Coppin State University.

Anna became a Baltimore City Public School teacher where she was quickly noted for her gifts. She served as a lead teacher, reading specialist, coordinator, assistant principal, advancing to the role of Principal, retiring from Edgewcombe Circle Elementary School in 1996.

Anna can be remembered for her sweet spirit and willing nature. Her devotion to children and excellence was so well noted that she became a mentor and model educator to many teachers throughout Baltimore City. She was a hands-on educator who showed you with a gentle touch how to improve, never being condescending in her approach.

Anna was an avid reader and loved to travel, especially to the African American Heritage Festivals.

Anna was married to the late Vernon E. Flowers, who preceded her in death, out of that union two sons. She leaves to cherish David and Tony flowers; her brother Wayne Agnew; her devoted caretaker Althea Howard, and a host of other relatives and friends.
