

Anna K James

April 14, 1929 - July 22, 2023

Born in Baltimore, Maryland, ANNA K. JAMES was the youngest child of the late Eugene and Anna Savoy. She was pre-deceased by a brother, Charles and a sister, Martha.

She was educated at Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland. While there she excelled as a basketball player. As a military wife, she traveled with her late husband James E. James and daughter Regina to Germany, where they resided for several years. They later lived in Fort Knox, Kentucky, before returning to Baltimore, Maryland.

Her desire to be independent led her to the field of nursing and earning an LPN degree. Anna always cared about her patients and was well-liked by all.

During her lifetime, she had many gifts and talents. Her most recent was ushering at the age of 90 at MLK Jr. Memorial United Methodist Church. In her 80s, she participated in fashion shows at her church and loved to dance as many know, at the church's jazz show events. She loved to cook for special occasions and was known for her pound cakes.

To all who knew Anna, she will be remembered as funny, compassionate and kind. She loved to laugh and tell stories. She will forever be loved by those she touched.

Anna leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Regina Battle; grandchildren, LaDonna Wayman and H. Ronald Battle; daughter-in-law, Lori; great-granddaughter, Alexa; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.
