

Anna L. Jones

June 28, 1916 - June 9, 2014

ANNA LOUISE JONES was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 28, 1916, to Leroy and Annie Monroe. She had three brothers, Leroy, Alphonso, and Robert. On May 20, 1944, Anna married George Melvin Jones from Portsmouth, Virginia. She bore five children, Thomas, Velma, Bettye, Annette and Patricia. Anna worked in Army Intelligence at Fort Holabird for most of her career. Anna Louise, always a devout Catholic, later became a member of All Saints Catholic Church, embracing all aspects of Church involvement. She was a founding member of the Women's Club and enjoyed serving as a Eucharistic Minister, not only dispensing the Sacred Host during Mass, but also at the Nursing Home on Liberty Heights and anyone else unable to attend Mass. She was especially proud of this ministry because her love and faith in God were such a part of who she was. Wherever she went, Anna was truly loved and respected; right up to the end of her life.

Anna Louise Jones is survived by four of her five children, having to endure the loss of her youngest child at an early age. She is also survived by eight grandchildren, Mark, Derek, Keith, Christopher, Kenya, Kelley, Erin and Alexandra; niece, Sylvia; nephew, Leroy "Chuck"; and three cousins, Robert, Delores, and Rosalie. Anna was blessed to have twelve great-grandchildren, Marleigh, Asia, Aaron, Darion, Kayla, Justin, Alex, Kory, Kai, Kamal, Konner and Londyn; great-niece, Porsha; great-nephew, Tony; along with additional great-great-nieces, Akosua, Sala and great-great-nephews, Assanta and Anon. Anna was blessed to be loved and adored by sons-in-law, Kenneth,

Larry, Clinton and Derek and daughter-in-law Loretta.

Anna Louise Jones presided proudly as Matriarch of this large family, teaching by example, strength of character and enduring love and faith in God.

“ To the Family and Friends of Anna L. Jones:

I was saddened to hear about your loss. I loss my grandmother a few years ago and it still hurts. I was able to cope because of the promises found in the Bible. The three scriptures that continually strengthens me and my family are 1 Corinthians 15:26 - “and the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing”, Revelation 21:4 – “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning or outcry be anymore, the former things have passed away” and last I appreciate the fact with every promise God has made He has never lied and to confirm this Titus 1:2 – “God who cannot lie has promised long ago”. I hope they bring comfort to you and your family as well. Please accept my sincere condolences. For more encouragement, please feel free to visit - w ww.JW.org

“ My dad (who is 97) is still with my family and so I know how nice it must have been to have had Ms. Jones with you until she was 97. May your many fine memories of her help you to cope with your loss and may the God of all comfort and tender mercies be with your family until you see her again in the resurrection. (John 5:28, 29) Please accept my sincere condolences.
