

Anna K. Parker

May 23, 1937 - December 19, 2001

ANNA KATHERINE PARKER, daughter of the late Alvin and Mary DeMinds, was born on May 23, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Wednesday, December 19, 2001 she became absent from the body to be present with our Lord for eternal rest after a sudden illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School Systems. Anna was united in marriage to Earl Parker in 1955. She was employed at Maryland General Hospital from 1965 to 1969, then Harbor Hospital from 1969 to 1995. She retired as a Central Supply Technician. Anna was a devout Catholic who loved our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was baptized early in life at St. Pius V Catholic Church, receiving her first communion from Father Cassidy and was confirmed at St. Frances Catholic Church. She was a faithful servant and made certain her church obligations were fulfilled until her departure from this earth. "Ma," as she was lovingly called by her four children, was preceded in death by her eldest daughter, Linnice and only one son, Michael. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Sonya and Renee Parker; granddaughter, Tyrita, Tiffany and Brittany; grandson, Kelly and Courtnay; great-granddaughter, Tiara; sisters, Gloria, Rose, Sheila, Martha and Mildred; brothers, Alvin Jr., Harry, Vernon, John and Larry; aunts, Martha, Annabel and Mary Frances; a special son-in-love Michael; a longtime companion, James; and a host of other relatives
