

Anna L Lyde

January 29, 1912 - January 1, 2006

ANNA LYDE, daughter of the late Mary Langley Cobb and Allen Cobb (stepfather), was born on January 29, 1912 in Washington, North Carolina. She had two children, the late Katie Marie Langley Griffin and Richard Langley Griffin; five brothers and sisters, Ella Oden, James Cobb and the late Rosabell Godley, Mac Irvin Cobb and Mary Cobb Waters. She eventually moved to Baltimore in search of promising opportunities. She worked at several locations in laundry and did day work until she met and married the late Fred Lyde. She spent many wonderful years as a homemaker before his departure March 7, 1974. Anna made numerous friends and will be missed by everyone who knew her. She was truly the best grandmother, sister, aunt, mother-in-law, and neighbor anyone could ask for. She departed her life on October 9, 2006 of natural causes. She leaves to mourn: her sister, Ella Oden of Washington, N.C.; and brother, James Cobb of Norfolk, Va.; seven grandchildren, Anna Thompson, Vonda Kay Parker, Belinda Keys, Lauren Lyde, Dereck Lyde, Anthony Lyde and Troy Lyde; and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Anna. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Lydes, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, even when that one has lived a long life, by our standards. Be assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
