

Anna Lucielle Fields

December 20, 1920 - February 28, 2006

ANNA LUCILE FIELDS was born to Rev. Mckinley Nicholson and Mrs. Mazie Nicholson on December 20, 1920 in Enfield, North Carolina. Anna accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at Crowell Baptist Church in Tillery, North Carolina on August 14, 1929. She loved the old hymns of the church. She sang with the choir until it was necessary to care for her loved ones. Her sister, Barbara Anne Nicholson, mother and father preceded her in death. She was the loving and devoted wife of Erastace Fields, whom she married on March 24, 1943. Of this union were born a daughter, Marva and a son, Erastace Nicholas. Her husband preceded her in death. The deceased was educated in North Carolina. She completed studies at Brick Tri-County High School in June 1937 and received her B.A. degree in Secondary Education from North Carolina College (North Carolina Central University) in Durham,, North Carolina in June 1941. She retired from the Baltimore City Public School System in June of 1981. The deceased was a faithful member of Whitestone Baptist Church for 51 years. She was a loving and devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She is survived by: her daughter, Marva F. Randolph and son-in-law, Arthur J. Randolph of Glen Burnie, Maryland; her son, Erastace Nicholas Fields of Washington, D.C.; two granddaughters, Alaina Nicole Fields and Shauna Maria Fields of Washington, D.C.; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Hi ! Field's ! May you all be having peace of mind. Time is moving on as it is nearing a year since Ms.Anna died. Living to 87 years is a great thing, my mother is 84. Ms.Anna had a long life and family and friends to be with. Happiness comes from giving of ones self as Acts 20:35 say " there is more happiness in giving than receiving". We can look forward to giving and living forever very soon as our heavenly father has said Ps.39:10-11. . May all the cherished memories of Ms.Anna stay close to your hearts. Sincerely, Lillian.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am thinking of you at this most difficult time, and extending my heartfelt sympathy. We are never prepared for the loss of a loved one, but God is always prepared to help us through that loss. May His presence begin the healing in your heart and soul, and may His love surround you with the comfort only He can give. May precious memories fill your heart and ease your pain. My prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Jackie Washington##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family while you are grieving the loss of your loved one. Please take comfort from the scripture at Acts 15:28,29. It mentions that our loved ones will come to life again in a "resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous". Conditions on earth will soon be much better (Rev. 21:4). May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
