

Anna Margaret Hardy

November 6, 1934 - February 2, 2008

Anna M. Hardy departed this life on Saturday, February 2, 2008 at MCV hospital. She was born on November 6, 1934 to Daisy Smith and the Late Jake B. Smith, in Manquin, Va. She was baptized and joined the Rock Spring Baptist Church at an early age. She was united in holy matrimony to Paul Hardy, Sr. who preceded her in death. To this union seven children were born. Anna was a sweet and quiet person, she was a stay at home mom who took care of her children and she loved cooking. Her sickness started when she was diagnosed with breast cancer about fifteen years ago. God blessed her through that sickness. She had other illnesses too but, God blessed her everyday with those to until he called her home. She lived a good life and loved all her children, Madeline Sue was her girl who took care of her until death. We all love you mom and we all will miss you. She leaves to cherish her loving memory her devoted family, children; Madeline Sue (devoted friend Fred Johnson), Gayle Waller (Mervin), Mary Jackson (Frederick), Nancy Oakley (James), James Hardy (Alleiuia), Paul Hardy, Jr. and Tony Hardy. Four sisters; Daisy Garrison, Rosa Jordan, Linda Smith, Mary Epps, seven brothers; James Smith, Sr., Henry Smith, Phillip Wayne Smith, Albert Smith, Thomas Smith and Lynn Smith. She was preceded in death by her brother Calvin Smith. Fifteen grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. A devoted family member and friend; Patricia Meadows.

“ Dear family, I am so sorry for your loss. one day, a time is coming, when there will be no more sickness or death, no more crying; because God promises at Rev 21,4 that he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." May you find much strength and comfort from the bible to help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
