

Anna P. Briscoe

December 18, 1917 - October 25, 2002

On October 25, 2002, Anna Pauline Briscoe, beloved mother of Ronald Samuels, Darlene Briscoe, Timothy Briscoe, Paulette Jones and Deborah Lyle and beloved mother-in-law of Sheila Little, Melvin Lyle and Alvin Jones, was received by her heavenly Father after a lengthy illness. In addition to her children, three loving sisters, Louise Jackson, Joan Dixon and Ernestine White survive Mrs. Briscoe. She is also survived by loving twenty-four grandchildren, twenty-nine great-grandchildren, twenty-three nieces and nephews, a host of grandnieces and nephews, cousins, and an abundance of friends. Her husband, James M. Briscoe preceded her in death. Three brothers and three sisters, Louis, Kermit, William, Mable, Virginia and Marjorie, also preceded her in death. Pauline, as she was affectionately known, was born to Lewis Augustus White and Margaret Anita White (Wilmer) on December 18, 1917 in Abingdon, Maryland. She later moved to Baltimore City where she was educated and resided for the remainder of her life. She graduated from the old Frederick Douglas High School and attended Cortez Peters Business School. She worked hard all of her life in many places, including a photography studio, Western Electric, and as a dedicated Baltimore City Public School System employee where she was employed in Food service. After retiring the first time, she returned to work and then retired from the Baltimore City Housing Authority Security Service. She was actively involved in housing and community service. She never tired of helping others. She fought for the rights of her fellow senior citizens locally and nationally.

She served as vice president of the Baltimore City Housing Authority Advisory Board. She and her husband were among the first residents of Bernard E. Mason Senior Community where she also presided and served on the Tenant Council. Pauline also was an active member of the Eastside Optimists and the RSVP She was a faithful member of Martin Luther King, Jr. United Methodist Church in Baltimore.

Tribute Wall

“ Anna P. Briscoe

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Briscoe Family: I deepest sympathy for you and your family on the passing your mother - Ms. Pauline. May God strengthen and keep your in his care always. God Bless -Linny, Brenda, Gwenie, Mozella (Moe) and James Franklin.##imported-begin##Linda Franklin Wood##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ This is only a pause in time to share love on a new level. You have been my light and guide through many of my finest moments...I know you'll continue to watch as I continue the deeds you helped me to recognize as necessary. One Love Alway Mom, Ronnie##imported-begin##Ron Samuels##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To My Very Best Girlfriend, All My Love and I Will See You Again On The Other Side. Your Oldest Daughter, Darlene##imported-begin##Darlene Briscoe##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Will miss you , LOVE YOU Always, see you on the other side give Daddy a big kiss and hug from all of his kids , tell everybody we miss ALL of you and we will do our best to make all of you proud of us LOVE KISSES AND HUGS FOREVERS AND ALWAYS Your Baby Girl Butch###imported-begin##Deborah Lyle###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM