

Anna Paige Worsham

February 8, 1931 - March 4, 2004

Anna Paige Giles, daughter of the late James Arthur and Giles, was born on February 8, 1931 in Amelia, Virginia. Anna departed for her home in glory following a courageous battle with illness that ended on March 4, 2004. She attended the Amelia County Public Schools. Anna joined the Mount Level Baptist Church at an early age, and remained an active member until she relocated after marriage. Anna cherished the fond memories of Growing up on a farm, and often shared stories to their family's livestock, and walking miles and miles to attend school, church or the store. Anna resided in Amelia until her parent's death, subsequently, she moved to Richmond to live with her eldest sister. On December 25, 1949 Anna married the love of her life, James Lee Worsham, Sr., and joined him to live in Baltimore, Maryland. They joined the Perkins Square Baptist Church in that same year, and continued to work out their soul salvation. With Christ being their nucleus, and faith love and joy as their fabric, James and Anna were able to retain their union; James Jr., Phyllis Brown, Patricia Wade, Alvin, and Pamela Lomax (James preceded Anna in death on July 28, 2002). Anna loved her family; she held a special and unique bond with each of her children. She often referred to her daily calls to them as her "children" roll call." In addition to fulfilling her motherly career roll, Anna held a career with the Rosewood State Hospital, a hospital that provided care for mentally challenged patients. Anna loved the patients at the hospital; she was fondly called "Mommy" by many of her patients. Family and friends were very important to Anna. Thus, she made loving her family and friends a hobby. She kept in close contact with them, and went out of her way to perform expressions of love for them. Moreover, she and her husband would travel at a moment's notice to visit their loved ones, just because. Anna enjoyed gardening, cooking, baking and watching western movies. She was renown for her homemade waffles, John Wayne westerns and her beautiful flowerbeds. She also enjoyed listening to her gospel hymns by Shirley Caesar," and Minister Clay Evans. She loved her grandchildren and enjoyed spending quality time with them. Anna had a special way of making even the most mundane tasks fun for her grandchildren. Anna leaves to mourn her five children (listed above); two daughters-in-law, Linda and Cassandra Worsham; three sons-in-law, Jonathan Brown and Edward Wade of Baltimore, MD and Earnest Lomax, Jr. of Upper Marlboro, MD; ten grandchildren, Darrell, Nathan (preceded her in death), Cheryl, Jarmel, Tanesha, Tameka, LaKeisha, Tierra, Ernest James, and Jordan; one granddaughter-in-law, eight great-grandchildren; three sisters, Dorothy Spratley and Rosa Hill of Richmond, VA, Virginia Haskins of Saxe, VA; one brother, Arthur Giles of Ford, VA, (note; she has joined one brother and one sister in heaven); four brothers-in-law, Herbert, Wendell, Daniel and Hugo; two sisters-in-law, Rosa Lee and Sarah Hawkes; the Morgan Family, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, good girlfriends and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Anna Paige Worsham

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Anna Paige Worsham

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Giving all praise to our lord and savior! The one who is able to keep us from falling. My deepest Prayers go out to the Worsham family. Reading this I realize I went to school with Cheryl Worsham. Cheryl we have not seen one another in years! I am truly sad for the loss you and your family has endured. May God Bless You....Stacey##imported-begin##Stacey##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family.. I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with the granddaughter Cheryl Worsham and I remember what had happened, it came to memory again when I read this obituary. Stay strong family and keep Prayer first. May God Bless...Kim##imported-begin##Kim##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family please accept my belated condolences. Our family finds much comfort from the loving promises found in the Bible. One such cherished promise is found at Hosea chapter 13, verse 14- "From the hand of Sheol(Hebrew word for grave) I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death?" So one day our loved ones will be "recovered", brought back to life. Jesus Christ brought people back to life right here on earth. He will do it again when he makes this very earth a peaceful paradise. Please read his loving promise at Matthew 5:5. May these divinely inspired words give you comfort, peace and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hil##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hey Grandma, Grandma I miss your loving arms, your laughs and your hugs and kisses. You were very special to all of us. I know you and Deaddy are resting peacefully. Continue to watch over us all. Your children, your grandchildren, and even your cousin the morgan family. thank you for everything. Say hello to deaddy, grandad ben T (didda) and Nathan. I'll see you when I get there.##imported-begin##Tiera Worsham##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Worsham's Family: I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family and friends. I know that Ms. Anna Worsham will be missed by all who love her. She will not be forgotten. Almighty God, through his Son Jesus Christ will bring back our dearly beloved ones. He has promised this by means of a "resurrection" John 5: 28 7 29. I pray that your rely on His many promises recorded in the Bible for strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM