

Anna E. Saunders-Douglas

December 9, 1939 - August 12, 2017

Ann Elizabeth Saunders was born in New York City on December 9, 1939 to the late Herbert and Alexine Saunders. Ann was raised in a household where attending Covent Avenue Baptist in Harlem NY was essential.

Ann also known to many as Cissie, moved to Baltimore, MD in the mid 1970s. In Baltimore is where she met and married George Douglas, known to many as Bobby. Ann worked for John Hopkins Health Services for 27 years before retiring.

Cissie built her life around Bobby and stepped in to raise his granddaughters after the passing of their mother Tori. Cissie raised Shanae and Melissa to be loving, independent and productive women. Although at times it seemed like tough love, Cissie will always be remembered for having a straight forward personality. She was full of life-feisty-and fun.

Cissie is survived by: her grandchildren, Shanae and Melissa Fields; four great-grandchildren, Ta'Niyah, Ta'Niyah, Tavien and Tori. Cissie's family members in New York include: three sisters, Dorothy Harris, Diane Morrison and Jacqueline Abernathy; one brother, Herbert Saunders Jr.; three nieces, Nicole, LaRonda, Lakeisha, three nephews, Troy Kareem, and Brian; three grand-nieces, Gianna-Gabriella, Fantaysia, and Toris; three grand-nephews, Siraj, Trent and Aiden; two sisters-in-law, Joanne Saunders and Edith Saunders; two close family members, Shantay Luck and Frederick Gilliam, along with a host of other family members and loving friends.

Cissie was called home to be with the Lord on August 12, 2017. She is truly missed and always in our hearts.
