Her dedication was something that was truly unmatched.

Anna received genuine joy supporting others and had a one of a kind gift for putting others first--even during her last days. She was a world renowned coffee drinker, guaranteed to either have a regular cup of coffee or a white chocolate mocha in her possession while playing Kenny G in the background Anna loved to cook and used baking her famous rolls, pies, and cakes as a family bonding time. These special times with family were the most important. After February 1995, every weekend and every spare minute was devoted to "NANA'S BABY" her granddaughter.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Josephine Lewis; sister, Gladys Smith; and brother, Benjamin Lewis. She leaves to cherish her loving sons; Neal and Brent (Rolanda) Walker; granddaughter Breonna Walker; grandson, Jermain Turner; husband Robert E. “ I am so sorry for your loss. Cherish the fond memories of your dear loved one. Have faith in the Kingdom Jesus taught his early followers to pray for at Matthew 6:9. This Kingdom will do away with our enemy, death, once and for all. Then we can look forward to another important action, the resurrection of millions of dead loved ones who have the prospect of growing to perfection under God's Messianic King. What great family reunions lay ahead. Until then let us run this race for life with endurance.
