

Annabell Graves

March 19, 1942 - December 6, 2001

Annabell Lashley Graves, daughter of the late Taft and Beatrice Lashley, departed this life at Lorien Nursing Home on Thursday, December 6, 2001. Annabell was born in Sparrows Point, Maryland on March 19, 1942. She attended Bragg Elementary School in Sparrows Point, Maryland and graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School in Baltimore City in 1960. She was baptized at an early age at the Union Baptist Church in Sparrows Point and later on, after moving to Baltimore City, Annabell became a member of Israel Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Edmond D. Meade. She was married to the late Walter Norris Graves on March 18, 1961, and out of this union they were blessed with three sons. Annabell was first employed at the Waverly Press Corporation. Later, the Maryland State Government employed her as a clerk typist, where she put in twenty-five years of service. Anna bell was a loving and devoted wife and mother, who enjoyed her husband's backyard barbecues. She was full of fun and loved socializing with family and friends. She leaves to mourn their loss: her sons, Michael Norris, Daryl Keith and Todd Montego Graves; four grandchildren, Vincent, Justin, Daryl Jr., and Jessica Danielle Graves; two sisters, Shirley L. Howell and Lorraine O. Brown; brother, Melvin Taft Lashley (brother Robert Wendell Lashley preceded her in death): six sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, aunts, uncles, a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
