

Annabelle Jenkins

November 17, 1936 - December 14, 2016

ANNABELLE JENKINS was born November 17, 1936 in Kingstree, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Watis Elijah Jenkins and Annie Fulton Jenkins. Annabelle was the youngest of six children. She slipped into a peaceful rest on December 14, 2016.

She received her education at Tomlinson High School in Kingstree, South Carolina. At the age of twenty she moved to Baltimore, Maryland and pursued additional education in the healthcare field. Annabelle started her nursing career at Levindale Nursing Home as a nursing assistant and medical aide. She loved taking care of others and retired from Manor Care Nursing home after twenty-five years in the healthcare industry.

Annabelle, known by her family as “Penny”, specialized in baking cakes. Her baking came with a touch of love that always brought you back for more. Her rum and German chocolate cakes were frequently requested by her family and friends. Early in her life Annabelle accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. When she was able, she started each morning reading her Bible. She was an active member of Calvary Baptist church until her health failed.

Annabelle was married to the late Henderson Jones and is survived by her former spouse Gladstone Lily.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, Watis Elijah Jenkins and Annie Fulton Jenkins; her son, Samuel Jones and four of her siblings, Queen Victoria Pendergrass, Morris Jenkins, Leroy Jenkins, and Titus Jenkins;.

Those left to mourn her life are: her three children, Joseph Booker and his wife Freddie of Little Rock, Arkansas, Ilene Brown of Baltimore, Maryland, Gladston Lily and his wife Rosa of Baltimore, Maryland; her only living sibling, Mary Jane Jenkins of Baltimore Maryland; sister- in-law, Sadie Jenkins of Washington D.C.; twelve grandchildren, Youndia, Urkia, LaFoyia, Monica, Joseph, David, Audrey, Jamal, Alexa, Gladston Jr. and Hailey; twelve great-grandchildren, a greatgreat-grandchild, and two faithful friends Mary Francis, and Ms Irene

“ To the family of Annabelle Jenkins. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that reads "The Hearer of prayers a source of comfort in times of grief and distress.
