“ t's Mother's Day again,
And I struggled to make it through,
Because this day reminds me
Of all the things I miss about you.

*I miss your face smiling down at me,
With love shining from your eyes.
I miss the way you'd laugh at my jokes
So hard that it made you cry.*

*I miss the touch of your dear hands,
How gentle and kind they could be.
And I miss the warmth of your hugs, and how
You'd wrap me up tight as could be.*

*I miss the smell of your perfume,
The way it lingered in the air.
Sometimes I think I smell it again,
And I get a sense that you're there.*

*I miss the way you could always tell
When something in my life had gone wrong,
How you'd talk to me until I felt better,
Your words soothed me like a song.*

*And so I sit here once again
Remembering these things I miss
And this year, just like every year,
I make a silent wish to see you again.*

*Yes; I wish that one day I'll see you again,
Whole, and safe, and sound.
That you'll take my hand securely in yours,
And forever we'll be bound into Eternity.*
