

Annette Graham

June 16, 1961 - February 25, 2003

Annette Graham was born on June 16, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Johnny Henry Graham III and Annie Mae Graham. She departed this life on February 25, 2003. Annette was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Annette was affectionately known as “Nessie” to everyone who knew and loved her. Nessie always had something mean or smart to say to everyone with a smile on her face. You could always depend on her to care for the babies and younger children in her family. They will all tell you that Aunt Nessie was not to be played with. No one will ever be able to replace her, for she had a one-of-a-kind personality. Annette was the mother of two daughters, Desiree and Kizzy. She also had two sisters who precede her in death, Gwendolyn Graham Butler and Brenda Graham Bullock. Everyone who had the honor of knowing and loving her will forever miss Nessie. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: her mother, Annie M. Graham; two daughters, Desiree N. Scott and Kizzy A. Butler; her grandmother, Mary G. Taylor; seven grandsons, Dantoine, Xavier, Darius, Jaylyn, Dorien, Darien and Joseph; seven sisters, Patricia Hughes, Agnes Knotts, Cornelius Graham, Bernice Graham, Yvonne Phillips, Victoria Johnson and Andrella Graham; three brothers, Oliver, Anthony and Alonzo Graham; four brothers-in-law, one sister-in-law, two very special people that were like sisters to her, Gloria Kelly and Thelma Coates; and a very large host of nieces and nephews.
