“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I pray that your family receives the comfort that you need to help you to deal with your sorrow. Death is truly heartbreaking, and it's particularly hard when one dies so young as your Annette was. I know because my son died when he was at a young age. What comforts me and my family is the wonderful promise of the resurrection found in God's word, the bible. Acts 24:15 says: "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection. Also John 5:28,39 promises: Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes those sleeping in those tombs will one day hear the voice of Christ Jesus who was given authority from his father to bring the dead back to life. Please read John 5:25-29. May the hope of seeing Annette again help you to cope with her loss.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Over the years through various tragedies my husband and I have received much comfort and hope from the loving promises found in the Bible. One such comforting verse is Acts 24:15- "There is going to be a resurrection." Dead loved ones have the hope of coming back to life with no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. (See Isaiah 65:17, 2 Peter 3:13) May you also receive much solace and strength as you think over these loving promises found in the Bible.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###
