

Annie Clay Backmon- Harvell

June 22, 1938 - July 21, 2015

ANNIE CLAY BACKMON-HARVELL, daughter of the late Johnnie and Elizabeth Backmon, was born on June 22, 1938 in Orangeburg, SC. She departed this life to be with the Lord after a lengthy illness on Tuesday, July 21, 2015.

Annie's family left South Carolina when she as a young girl and moved to Baltimore. She received her education in the South Carolina and Baltimore City school systems. She worked several years as a teacher in the Baltimore City school systems. She would often visit New Jersey. Annie loved New Jersey so much that she later moved there for a spell. She later returned to Baltimore to help care for her mother and grandchildren. Annie knew and loved the Lord and had attended Siloam Freewill Baptist Church until she fell ill.

Annie, affectionately known as "Clay or KT", had a beautiful smile and a big heart but quick with her hands. Her favorite color was red and it was a rare occasion to see her without something red on. She enjoyed watching old westerns and game shows and playing card games. Other activities she enjoyed were visiting Atlantic City, attending family functions and watching her grandchildren. Annie lived a good life, doing the things she enjoyed, and will be surely be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Annie is preceded in death by: her parents, Johnnie and Elizabeth Backmon; husband, Albert Howell; three sons, Robert K. Harvell, Jr., Jeremiah Stewart (Celeste of New Jersey) and Darnell Harvell; three brothers, Jerome, Johnnie and Solomon Backmon; and a sister, LouElla Thomas (Poppi of New Jersey).

To cherish her memory she leaves: her son, Anthony (Joann) Harvell; daughters, Ann Backmon, LueElla Lane, Arlene Logan of New Jersey and Aisha Wilson; a brother, Curtis Backmon (Lilly); thirty-two grandchildren, forty-eight great-grandchildren, twenty great-great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friend
