

Annie Bell Muir

November 21, 1920 - February 12, 2002

Annie Bell Muir, daughter of the late Robert and Dora Johnson, was born on November 21, 1920 in Dilan, South Carolina. She departed this life on Tuesday, February 12, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the public schools of Dilan, South Carolina. Annie met and married Hayes Andrew Muir, and out of this union two daughters were born; Lillamae Brown and Rethamae Brown, who preceded her in death. She was a dedicated worker for the "Plant Families" for over thirty years. Annie loved to cook and enjoyed spending time with her family. It was a joy to be around her, to hear the different types of stories she had to tell. She made friends everywhere she went and will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her. Annie leaves to mourn: her stepdaughter, Gertrude Muir-Steele; nine grandchildren, Veronica Holbrook, Anthony Holbrook, David Brown, William Holbrook, Elizabeth Kelly, Carolyn Kelly, Joanne Briscoe, Carl Kelly, Jr. and Pete Owens; thirteen great-grandchildren, Latasha Somerville, Alisha Dodd, Tonia Briscoe, Anthony Briscoe, Timothy Briscoe, Chiffon Mosby, Joseph Shields, Shannon Shields, Clarence Somerville, La Tisha Flight, Shanice Kelly, Anthony Holbrook, Jr., and Dontae Brown; six great-great-grandchildren; in-laws, Andre Branch, Pat Holbrook, Butch Briscoe, and Carl Kelly, Sr.; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
