

Annie Bell Steward

July 9, 1920 - September 6, 2005

ANNIE BELL STEWARD, daughter of the late Willie West McGhee and Cora Royster McGhee, was born on July 9, 1920 in Semora, North Carolina. She departed this life on September 6, 2005 after extended illnesses. She met and married the late John Henry Steward in 1938, then moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where they resided until his sudden passing in 1988. While there were no children from this union she lovingly raised a nephew, Gregory McGhee, son of her younger sibling Barbara Jean Johnson (McGhee). She started her own beauty salon, during that time, in the community where she resided then later moved onto a position with the then Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Maryland from which she retired in 1985. She was baptized in Jesus' name and filled with the Holy Ghost at Nazarene Temple Apostolic Faith Church on September 15, 1962. She was a faithful member, along with her husband, until her health began to fail her. Annie was a very caring and loving person and worked in the church in a number of capacities over the years. Annie cared about a great many things and not least of which was her fellow man. She was a vital member of her community and was loved by all there. She leaves to mourn: Gregg McGhee, who she raised as a son; her sisters, Gladys Elmore (McGhee) of Milton, N.C. and Barbara Jean Johnson (McGhee), wife of James Elbert Johnson, of Atmore, Alabama; sisters-in-law, Nanny McGhee, wife of the late Joshua McGhee, Forestine McGhee, wife of the late Walter Floyd "Bo" McGhee and Hattie McGhee, wife of the late George Wesley McGhee; two aunts, Annie McGhee, sister of the late Willie

West McGhee and Lizzie Mae McCain, sister of the late Cora Royster McGhee; and truly a host of nieces and nephews.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Though we’ve never met, I would like to express my sincere condolences for your great loss. If I may offer a comforting scripture from God’s Word the Bible, it would be John 5:28,29 which promises: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.” May your family find comfort in God’s Word during this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Kelly Gathers##imported-end##
