

Annie Mae Bolar

June 30, 1926 - January 15, 2019

Annie Mae Bolar, daughter of the late Eva Savoy (Knight) and John H. Gray, was born on June 30, 1926 in Baltimore Maryland. She was the youngest of 3 daughters. On January 15, 2019 Annie Mae as she was called departed this life after a lengthy illness.

Annie Mae was educated in the public-school system. She was employed as an elevator operator in the early years of life working at Hutzler's department store that was located in the downtown area of Baltimore. She later worked as a domestic in various homes.

In 1964 she married William (Willie) Bolar and became a full-time homemaker. She and her husband enjoyed their family, church and traveling to visit distant relatives and friends. MaeMae as she was lovingly nick named by one of her great grand- daughters loved to dance and be sociable with others. Her pleasant mannerism and love of children made her a sort after babysitter for family and neighbors. Most who got to know her liked and enjoyed her company.

Annie Mae leaves to cherish her memories her devoted children Patricia Bryce-Sheely and William H. Gray (Lillie); Granddaughters, Venus Mascarenhas (Marcellus), Tonya Oliver-Smith (Dewayne), Natasha Bryce-Dennis (Paul), Angela Congo; Grandsons, Barnett Carroll (April), Kevin Gray; (23) great grandchildren; (23) great great grandchildren; (1) great great great grandchild; host of nieces, nephews and other loving relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband William Bolar; her sisters Mamie Moses and Edith Gray; grandsons Marcus and Michael Gray; great grandsons Ernest Sims IV and Daniel Dennis.

“ To the Bolar family I offer deep sympathy. It's so difficult losing a loved one. The pain cuts so deeply. I hope and pray that the comfort from our God in the heavens help you to cope in the days ahead. One day your loved one will live again, because Jesus is the resurrection and the life. John 11:25
