

Annie M. Camper

May 6, 1933 - March 1, 2015

On March 1, 2015 ANNIE MARIE CAMPER was called home by God. Annie was born on May 6, 1933 in Franklinton, North Carolina to the late Edward Nicholson and the late Mattie Fisher. Annie was raised by her father and step-mother Tiny Nicholson. Annie was 82 years of age.

Annie graduated in 1953 from Huntington High School in Newport News, VA. In 1955 she graduated from the Henryton Practical School on Nursing located in Henryton, MD. Annie later worked as a Nurse before starting her family. Annie made history as the first black Nurse at Baltimore's Polytechnic Institute. She also worked as a Nurse at Baltimore's Provident Hospital. Later Annie provided private duty nursing services to many seniors.

Annie's pleasant personality and calming demeanor brought smiles to all that knew her.

Annie enjoyed gardening, sewing, cooking, her Soap Operas, singing and most of all her family. Annie sacrificed a lot for her children by leaving a career that she loved. Though financially, Annie was not rich, she was wealthy beyond belief with children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Annie grew up blessed with sisters Dorothy Nicholson Kearse and Ernestine Keith Webb and brothers James Keith and the late Nick Nicholson.

Annie was married to the late Douglass James Camper Jr. together, they enjoyed raising five children, Derrick Leon Camper, Douglass James Camper III, Renee Camper, Michael Louis Camper and Anthony Nathenson Camper. Annie also loved and helped raise step-son, Sean Camper. Annie enjoyed the time she spent with her grandchildren, Nakia Nicole Camper, James Hollis McDonald III, Alise Naomi-Ann McDonald, Morgan Danielle Camper, Michael Anthony Camper and Ryan Camper. She was also blessed with two great-grandchildren Kai'on Bowman and Josiah Crosier. Annie also leaves behind son-in-law, James Hollis McDonald Jr., daughters-in-law, Wanda Day Camper, Jacquelin Sharpless Camper and adopted daughters-in-law, Vickie Dobbins and Floretta Sharpless.
