

Annie B. Cone

February 8, 1924 - January 12, 2020

Annie Bertha Cone was born in Promiseland South Carolina on February 8, 1924, daughter of Lorenzo and Maggie Jordan Brown. She then came to Baltimore, Maryland in 1945 where she met Harvey Johnson Tisdale Sr., and from that union four children were born.

She attended Promiseland Public Schools. At an early age she gave her life to Christ. She was a member of Mount Zion A.M.E. Church where she served on the Missionary Board. She was affectionately known as Big Momma, Sister and BeeBee. Big Momma's love was infectious, and once you met her it was love at first sight. Her greatest love was her family and cooking. Nobody could cook southern food like Big Momma. Some of her well liked dishes were her cornbread, stuffing, greens, rice pudding, yeast rolls, neckbone and turkey wing stew, and pecan pie.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Willa Pulley; son, Harvey L. Tisdale; son-in-law, Donald Colbert; and stepson, Tony Cone (sister and brother Sarah Colbert and Charles Linwood Tisdale preceded her in death); sister, Mabel Norman; and sister-in-law, Mary Brown; six grandchildren, Darik and Gary Colbert, Kim Pulley, Charles Tisdale, Harvey L. Tisdale Jr. and Monica Tisdale; eleven great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren, Olivia, Leah, Victoria, Landon; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends including her longtime best friend, Ella

Moore.
