

Annie B. Davis

July 9, 1931 - February 7, 2019

ANNIE B. DAVIS, daughter of the late Carrie Davis and Baxter Mack, was born on July 9, 1931 in Baltimore, MD. She was married to the late Melvin Davis. Annie received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools.

Annie was a faithful member at Sweet Hope Baptist Church where she was married, and later attended Brown's Memorial Baptist Church.

Annie was a very family-oriented devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother; straight-forward, hardworking, and loving. She enjoyed many things that challenged her mind. Annie loved crossword puzzles. Her daily routine was to watch Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. She also loved to play bingo.

Annie was preceded in death with her brothers Henry Queen, Thomas Queen, and Willie Queen; and a daughter, Valerie Armstrong.

Annie leaves to cherish her memory: Arlene Haley (sister); her daughters, Sharlene Christmas, Barbara Yates, Renee Todd, and Christine Gladden; her son, Rickford Judkins; and a close friend, Juanita Patterson; and, a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
